

Welcome to Sulaymaan Art!

Sulaymaan is a self-taught, multi-faceted artist whose art is a reflection of his view of life and his commitment to peace, equality, human and animal rights, and environmental protection. He believes that, "art is the greatest form of expression that a person can leave behind" and that all artists should exercise creativity responsibility; the principle that artists have a responsibility to spark positive change through creative expression.